

Millbrook Technology Campus, Second Avenue, Southampton, SO15 0DJ

Splice Marketing is located on a one way section of Second Avenue within the NXP Building Campus.

From the M271 or from the West, enter the A35 heading towards Southampton city centre, keep in the left lane and leave the A35 following signs for Dock Gate 20. At the roundabout under the fly-over take the last exit, rejoining the A35 heading West. Pass a shell station on your left, soon after that turn left just before Porcelanosa and immediately left again onto second avenue. You will see the NXP building on your right with blue gates, the main entrance to the campus is here.
